

BACKHOUSE

Meaning: Backhouse: a secondary or auxiliary building, often located behind a main house, typically used for storage or additional living space.

1. The old backhouse behind the main estate was filled with forgotten tools and memories.
2. She decided to convert the backhouse into a cozy guest suite for visiting friends.
3. In the rural village, the backhouse served as a storage space for farming equipment.
4. The children played hide and seek around the backhouse, their laughter echoing through the yard.
5. He found a dusty box of old photographs in the backhouse that revealed the family's history.
6. The backhouse was once a bustling workshop, alive with the sounds of craftsmanship.
7. They discovered an antique rocking chair in the backhouse that had been covered in dust for years.
8. Restoring the backhouse became a passion project for the young couple.
9. The backhouse's creaky floorboards told stories of generations that had passed through.
10. After the storm, they found the backhouse had survived with only minor damage, a relief to everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/backhouse>