

BACKSLIDING

Meaning: Backsliding refers to a regression to a previous, less desirable state or condition, often after making progress.

1. The team was concerned about the backsliding in their recent performance.
 2. After months of progress, his sudden backsliding in addiction recovery was disheartening.
 3. She feared that backsliding in her work ethic would affect her promotion chances.
 4. Despite initial success, backsliding in public health measures led to a rise in cases.
 5. The politician warned against backsliding on environmental regulations that had been established.
 6. Backsliding in a relationship can often indicate deeper underlying issues.
 7. Many experts believe that backsliding from democracy is a concerning trend in some countries.
 8. His backsliding in fitness goals reminded him of the importance of consistency.
 9. The organization implemented new strategies to prevent backsliding in their community programs.
 10. Backsliding on commitments can damage trust between friends and partners.
 11. Backsliding in his commitment to fitness made it harder for him to reach his goals.
 12. After months of progress, she was disappointed by her sudden backsliding in her studies.
 13. The team was concerned about backsliding in their performance after a series of losses.
 14. His backsliding in savings habits led to increased financial stress.
 15. The community experienced backsliding in its efforts to reduce pollution levels.
 16. Backsliding in relationships often happens when communication breaks down.
 17. The organization implemented new strategies to prevent backsliding in employee engagement.
 18. She recognized her backsliding in healthy eating and decided to make a change.
 19. Despite initial success, the project faced backsliding due to lack of support.
 20. The therapist addressed backsliding as a common part of the recovery process.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/backsliding>