

BADAUD

Meaning: BADAUD: A person who observes or gawks at something with curiosity, often in a passive or uncritical manner.

1. The badaud stared in awe at the street artist's incredible mural.
2. As a badaud, he couldn't help but gawk at the spectacle unfolding before him.
3. In the bustling market, she felt like a badaud, overwhelmed by the sights and sounds.
4. The badaud captured every moment on his camera, not wanting to miss a single detail.
5. Walking through the gallery, he became a badaud, lost in the beauty of the paintings.
6. She realized being a badaud sometimes meant missing the deeper story behind the scene.
7. The badaud's fascination with the parade made him forget all his worries for a while.
8. As a badaud, his curiosity led him to discover hidden gems in the city.
9. He was often labeled a badaud for his habit of lingering too long at attractions.
10. In that moment, the badaud felt a deep connection with the art and the artist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/badaud>