

BADDISH

Meaning: BADDISH (adjective): somewhat bad or undesirable in quality or behavior.

1. The restaurant's ambiance was a bit baddish, with dim lighting and worn-out furniture.
2. His baddish behavior during the meeting offended several colleagues.
3. She wore a baddish expression that hinted at her displeasure with the situation.
4. The movie had a baddish plot twist that left the audience confused.
5. Despite its baddish reputation, the café served surprisingly good coffee.
6. The team's performance was baddish, but they showed potential for improvement.
7. He had a baddish sense of humor that not everyone appreciated.
8. The weather was baddish, with overcast skies and a chilling wind.
9. Her baddish attitude made it difficult for anyone to approach her.
10. The book received baddish reviews, but some readers found it charming.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baddish>