

BADE

Meaning: Bade is the past tense of "bid," meaning to express a command or to say goodbye.

1. She bade farewell to her friends before embarking on her journey.
2. The queen bade her subjects to gather in the courtyard for an announcement.
3. After the meeting, he bade his colleagues goodnight and left the office.
4. As the sun set, she bade adieu to the beautiful seaside town.
5. He bade his wife a warm goodbye as she headed off to work.
6. The teacher bade her students to settle down and pay attention.
7. With a heavy heart, he bade his childhood home one last look.
8. She bade him come closer so she could whisper her secret.
9. In the midst of the celebration, he bade everyone to raise their glasses.
10. After the concert, the singer bade her fans to keep the spirit alive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bade>