

BADGER

Meaning: Badger (noun): a nocturnal burrowing mammal with a stocky body and short legs, typically found in wooded areas; (verb): to repeatedly and persistently annoy or pressure someone to do something.

1. The children were excited to spot a badger foraging in the woods.
2. She decided to badger her boss for a raise after receiving excellent feedback.
3. His relentless questions began to badger her during the lengthy meeting.
4. The badger is known for its distinctive black and white facial markings.
5. I could hear the dog barking as it tried to badger the cat into playing.
6. After being badgered for weeks, he finally agreed to join the team.
7. The documentary highlighted the struggles faced by badgers in urban areas.
8. It's not polite to badger someone for an answer when they're unsure.
9. The badger dug a deep burrow to protect itself from predators.
10. You shouldn't badger people about their personal lives; it's intrusive.
11. The children decided to badger their parents until they agreed to go to the amusement park.
12. She felt like she was being badgered by her coworkers to contribute to the group project.
13. Despite his attempts to ignore them, the persistent questions continued to badger him throughout the meeting.
14. The documentary featured a badger rummaging through the underbrush in search of food.
15. In the late evening, the badger emerged from its burrow to forage for insects and grubs.
16. He tried to badger his friend into joining him on a spontaneous road trip.
17. Badgers are known for their strong digging abilities and often create extensive burrow systems.
18. The reporter had to badger the officials for weeks to get a clear response about the incident.
19. Watching the badger in the wild was a rare and thrilling experience for the wildlife enthusiasts.
20. She didn't want to badger him about his plans, but she was curious to know what he was thinking.

21. The children tried to badger their parents into buying them ice cream.
22. He decided to badger his friend about the importance of studying for the exam.
23. Every time she saw him, he would badger her with questions about her weekend.
24. The reporter began to badger the politician with tough questions during the interview.
25. She felt overwhelmed as her coworkers continued to badger her for help with their projects.
26. It's not polite to badger someone for their opinion if they are not ready to share it.
27. The incessant phone calls seemed to badger him into making a decision he wasn't prepared for.
28. Despite her attempts to ignore them, the kids would always badger her for more snacks.
29. He knew that if he didn't set boundaries, his friends would continue to badger him for favors.
30. The relentless salespeople tried to badger customers into buying products they didn't need.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/badger>