

BADGERER

Meaning: A badgerer is a person who persistently and annoyingly demands answers or action from others.

1. The persistent badgerer continued to press for answers despite the team's reluctance.
2. In the meeting, she played the role of a badgerer, pushing her colleagues to finalize the project.
3. His reputation as a badgerer earned him both respect and annoyance among his peers.
4. The badgerer wouldn't let the issue drop, ensuring it was addressed repeatedly.
5. She had a knack for being a badgerer, always challenging the status quo.
6. The badgerer's relentless questioning eventually led to a breakthrough in the discussion.
7. As a badgerer, he believed that thorough inquiry was essential for progress.
8. The badgerer's tactics sometimes rubbed others the wrong way, but they often yielded results.
9. Being a badgerer can be exhausting, yet it can also lead to significant discoveries.
10. A skilled badgerer knows when to push and when to step back for better results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/badgerer>