

BAFF

Meaning: Baffed (verb): to be confused or perplexed by something unexpected or difficult to understand.

1. He was completely baffled by the sudden change in her behavior.
2. The complex puzzle baffled even the most experienced players.
3. Trying to understand quantum physics often leaves students baffled and frustrated.
4. She looked baffled as she tried to follow the intricate plot of the movie.
5. The magician's final trick baffled the audience, leaving them in awe.
6. Despite his best efforts, the instructions still baffled him.
7. The mysterious disappearance of the artifact baffled the investigators for years.
8. Her explanation baffled him, making him question everything he thought he knew.
9. The unexpected twist in the novel left readers feeling baffled and intrigued.
10. His inability to solve the riddle baffled his friends, who thought he was clever.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baff>