

BAFFLEMENT

Meaning: Bafflement refers to a state of confusion or bewilderment caused by something puzzling or difficult to understand.

1. The scientist looked at the unexpected results with a sense of bafflement.
2. Her expression was one of bafflement as she tried to understand the complex instructions.
3. The bafflement in the room was palpable when the magician performed his impossible trick.
4. His bafflement was evident when he realized he had forgotten the main point of the discussion.
5. She couldn't hide her bafflement when the teacher asked a question that seemed unrelated to the lesson.
6. The bafflement he felt after reading the abstract art piece was shared by many in the gallery.
7. Their bafflement turned into laughter when they discovered the prank had been played on them.
8. Despite their best efforts, the bafflement surrounding the sudden disappearance remained unsolved.
9. Bafflement washed over him as he tried to decipher the cryptic message left on his desk.
10. The child's bafflement at the magician's disappearing act was utterly charming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bafflement>