

BAFFLER

Meaning: BAFFLER (noun): something that confuses or perplexes, often leaving others in a state of puzzlement or uncertainty.

1. The sudden change in the weather was a baffler for the experienced meteorologist.
2. Her decision to move to a different city with no job prospects left everyone around her in bafflement.
3. The magician's final trick was a baffler that had the entire audience questioning their own eyes.
4. Despite his extensive research, the scientist found the results of the experiment to be a baffler.
5. The complex plot of the movie was a baffler, leaving many viewers puzzled until the very end.
6. Trying to understand his cryptic message was a baffler that consumed her thoughts for days.
7. The unexpected turn of events was a baffler that no one saw coming.
8. Solving the intricate puzzle proved to be quite a baffler for even the most avid enthusiasts.
9. The ancient artifact remained a baffler to historians and archaeologists alike.
10. Her sudden change in attitude was a baffler that left her friends feeling concerned and confused.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baffler>