

BAFFLING

Meaning: Baffling: causing confusion or puzzlement; difficult to understand or explain.

1. The magician's trick was so baffling that even the most seasoned audience members were left speechless.
2. Despite thorough research, the scientist found the phenomenon to be utterly baffling and in need of further investigation.
3. Her sudden change in behavior was baffling to all her friends, who couldn't understand what had prompted it.
4. The complexity of the puzzle was baffling, leaving many players frustrated after hours of trying to solve it.
5. He gave a baffling answer that only added to the confusion surrounding the issue.
6. The ancient manuscript contained baffling symbols that experts struggled to decode.
7. The plot twist in the novel was so baffling that readers had to reread several chapters to grasp its meaning.
8. It was baffling how such a simple mistake could lead to such significant consequences.
9. The sudden shift in the weather was baffling to meteorologists, who couldn't explain the rapid change.
10. Her explanation was baffling; I couldn't follow her train of thought at all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baffling>