

BALLISTIC

Meaning: Ballistic refers to the motion of an object in flight, especially a missile following a curved trajectory due to gravity, or describes a sudden and extreme emotional outburst.

1. The missile was designed to follow a ballistic trajectory for maximum accuracy.
2. Her temper was so explosive that she went ballistic over the smallest mistakes.
3. The scientists studied the ballistic properties of different materials for the new armor.
4. After the accident, the driver became ballistic, yelling and pointing at everyone around.
5. The ballistic calculations were crucial for ensuring the safety of the satellite launch.
6. He had a ballistic response to the criticism, making the situation even more tense.
7. In the movie, the villain escaped in a ballistic submarine, evading capture.
8. The research team published a paper on the effects of gravity on ballistic motion.
9. When his plans were thwarted, he reacted in a ballistic manner that surprised everyone.
10. The generals were pleased with the ballistic tests, which showed improved range and precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ballistic>