

BALLOTAGE

Meaning: Ballotage is a voting process in which the top candidates compete in a second round of elections when no candidate achieves a majority in the initial vote.

1. The election resulted in a ballotage, forcing the top two candidates to compete head-to-head.
2. Voters were anxious about the impending ballotage, knowing it would determine their next leader.
3. In cases of a ballotage, every vote counts significantly more than in a regular election.
4. The candidate's campaign intensified as they prepared for the upcoming ballotage.
5. After the initial voting round, the commission announced a ballotage would be necessary.
6. Many citizens felt that a ballotage was a fair way to ensure the winning candidate had majority support.
7. The ballotage was scheduled for two weeks later, giving voters time to reevaluate their choices.
8. During the ballotage, the atmosphere was charged with excitement and anticipation.
9. Candidates debated fiercely in the lead-up to the ballotage, hoping to sway undecided voters.
10. Political analysts speculated on the possible outcomes of the ballotage based on the first round results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ballotage>