

BANCO

Meaning: Banco: a financial institution that accepts deposits, provides loans, and offers various financial services.

1. She walked into the banco to deposit her paycheck.
2. The banco offered a variety of financial services to its customers.
3. After the merger, the banco expanded its branches across the country.
4. He needed to visit the banco to inquire about a loan application.
5. The old banco building had a charming architectural design.
6. Many people prefer to use the online services of their banco.
7. She was surprised to find a café inside the banco.
8. The banco's policies on savings accounts were very competitive.
9. He felt a sense of security knowing his money was in a reputable banco.
10. The local banco hosted a community event to promote financial literacy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/banco>