

BANDERILLERO

Meaning: A banderillero is a bullfighter who skillfully places banderillas, or decorated darts, into the shoulders of a bull during a bullfighting event.

1. The banderillero danced gracefully around the bull, expertly placing the banderillas in its shoulders.
2. In traditional Spanish bullfighting, the role of the banderillero is crucial for controlling the animal's aggression.
3. After several years of training, he finally earned his place as a banderillero in the prestigious Madrid arena.
4. The banderillero's vibrant costume added a splash of color to the tense atmosphere of the bullring.
5. With each successful placement of the banderilla, the crowd erupted in cheers for the skilled banderillero.
6. As a banderillero, she had to master both the art of agility and the science of timing.
7. The banderillero's heart raced as he prepared to face the formidable bull in front of him.
8. Many aspire to become a banderillero, but only a few possess the necessary courage and finesse.
9. The banderillero struck a pose, showcasing his confidence before the crowd and the bull alike.
10. Critics often debate the ethics of bullfighting, including the role of the banderillero in the spectacle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/banderillero>