

BUNDLE

Meaning: BUNDLE (noun): A bundle or collection of items, such as flowers or firewood, typically tied or gathered together.

1. The bundle of flowers was a vibrant addition to the wedding decor.
2. He carried a bundle of firewood on his shoulder as he walked back to the cabin.
3. A bundle of old letters was discovered in the attic, revealing a family's history.
4. The artist painted a bundle of colorful balloons floating in the blue sky.
5. She bought a bundle of fresh herbs from the farmer's market to use in her cooking.
6. During the picnic, they laid out a bundle of blankets for everyone to sit on.
7. He tied a bundle of notes together with a string to keep them organized.
8. The bundle of sticks used for the campfire crackled warmly in the night air.
9. After the event, a bundle of leftover food was donated to a local shelter.
10. The children excitedly gathered a bundle of leaves for their fall craft project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bundle>