BANDOLINE

Meaning: Bandoline is a sticky preparation used in the beauty industry to set hairstyles and as an adhesive for wigs and false hairpieces.

1. Bandoline is often used in the beauty industry as a setting agent for hairstyles.
2. In the past, bandoline was a popular adhesive for making wigs and false hairpieces.
3. The recipe for homemade bandoline includes natural ingredients like sugar and water.
4. Artists sometimes use bandoline to adhere delicate materials in their mixed media projects.
5. She applied bandoline to her hair to create a polished and sleek look for the event.
6. Bandoline can be found in various formulations, catering to both professional and amateur users.
7. The historical use of bandoline dates back to the 18th century, showcasing its longevity in beauty practices.
8. Many people are unaware that bandoline was originally derived from plant sources.
9. In vintage beauty salons, bandoline was a staple for achieving elaborate hairstyles.
10. Craft enthusiasts have rediscovered bandoline for its versatile applications in paper crafting and collage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bandoline