

BANDORE

Meaning: A bandore is a stringed musical instrument resembling a lute, characterized by a rounded body and a long neck, typically played by strumming.

1. The bandore's rich, resonant sound filled the air during the evening concert.
2. She strummed the bandore gently, captivating everyone in the cozy café.
3. After years of practice, he finally performed a beautiful piece on the bandore.
4. The intricate carvings on the bandore showcased the artisan's incredible skill.
5. As a child, she was mesmerized by the melodies of the bandore played by her grandfather.
6. He decided to learn the bandore after hearing it in a traditional folk music festival.
7. Her bandore was a family heirloom, passed down through generations.
8. The bandore complemented the ensemble perfectly, adding depth to the music.
9. In the quiet of the room, the soft notes of the bandore created a serene atmosphere.
10. They gathered around the bandore, singing and playing together until dawn.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bandore>