

BANDROL

Meaning: A bandrol is an official label or seal affixed to a product to certify its authenticity and compliance with regulations.

1. The store displayed a variety of products with a bandrol indicating their authenticity.
2. To ensure compliance with regulations, each bottle must have a proper bandrol affixed.
3. The bandrol on the item confirmed that it was legally imported and safe for consumption.
4. Without the bandrol, the merchandise was considered counterfeit and seized by authorities.
5. She carefully peeled off the bandrol to reveal the pristine surface of the collectible item.
6. His collection of vintage wines was impressive, each bottle adorned with its original bandrol.
7. The government implemented strict laws regarding the use of bandrols to combat illegal trade.
8. A faded bandrol on the artwork suggested it was an original piece from the early 20th century.
9. The bandrol's unique design helped distinguish genuine products from knock-offs in the market.
10. During the audit, the accountant checked that all items had their corresponding bandrols attached.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bandrol>