

BANNEROL

Meaning: A bannerol is a long, narrow strip of cloth or paper, often decorated with text or designs, used for display or decoration at events.

1. The festival was adorned with a vibrant bannerol that caught everyone's attention.
2. She proudly held up a bannerol that displayed her team's name during the championship.
3. The ancient church featured a beautiful bannerol that depicted scenes from its history.
4. As the parade passed by, colorful bannerols fluttered in the breeze, showcasing various messages.
5. He designed a custom bannerol to celebrate the grand opening of his new cafe.
6. The art gallery displayed a bannerol that announced the upcoming exhibition of local artists.
7. During the protest, demonstrators carried a large bannerol with a powerful slogan.
8. The wedding reception was decorated with a romantic bannerol that welcomed guests.
9. In the theater, a bannerol was unveiled to promote the latest performance.
10. The community center hung a bannerol outside to invite everyone to the upcoming event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bannerol>