

BANTLING

Meaning: Bantling refers to a young child or infant, often implying innocence and playfulness.

1. The young bantling played joyfully in the garden, unaware of the world beyond its small yard.
2. As the bantling clung to its mother's side, its wide eyes took in every new sight with wonder.
3. In the quaint village, the townsfolk often gathered to celebrate the arrival of each new bantling.
4. The farmer smiled as he watched the bantling frolic among the other animals in the meadow.
5. With a gentle touch, she cradled the bantling in her arms, feeling its warmth and innocence.
6. The bantling's laughter echoed through the halls, filling the home with a sense of joy.
7. After a long day, the tired bantling finally succumbed to sleep in its cozy crib.
8. Eager to explore, the bantling took its first wobbly steps toward the colorful toy.
9. The bantling's curiosity was insatiable, as it reached out to touch everything within its grasp.
10. Everyone in the family doted on the bantling, showering it with love and affection at every turn.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bantling>