

BAPTISTICAL

Meaning: BAPTISTICAL: Pertaining to or characteristic of the Baptist denomination, especially in relation to its beliefs, practices, or sermons.

1. The preacher delivered a baptistical sermon that resonated deeply with the congregation.
2. Her roots in the baptistical tradition shaped her views on community service and outreach.
3. The baptistical beliefs of the group influenced their approach to education and charity.
4. He was raised in a baptistical household, where faith was a cornerstone of daily life.
5. The baptistical doctrine emphasizes the importance of personal faith and baptism.
6. During the revival meeting, the baptistical hymns filled the air with a sense of hope.
7. She found solace in the baptistical teachings that guided her through difficult times.
8. The baptistical community organized a charity event to support local families in need.
9. His interest in baptistical history led him to write a comprehensive book on the subject.
10. The baptistical festival celebrated the spirit of unity and fellowship among believers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baptistical>