

BAPTIZABLE

Meaning: BAPTIZABLE: Adjective describing a person or entity that is considered eligible or suitable for baptism, often based on faith or belief.

1. The church teaches that any person who is willing to accept their faith is baptizable.
2. In many religious traditions, infants are considered baptizable if their parents are believers.
3. The pastor explained that the criteria for being baptizable may vary between different denominations.
4. During the seminar, we discussed the importance of understanding what it means to be baptizable.
5. She felt a deep calling to ministry and wanted to help others understand they are baptizable.
6. The congregation celebrated the baptizable candidates during the special ceremony.
7. In his sermon, he emphasized that everyone, regardless of their past, is baptizable in God's eyes.
8. The church's outreach program aims to reach those who may not see themselves as baptizable.
9. They provided resources for individuals to explore their readiness to become baptizable.
10. The discussion centered around the belief that faith can make even the most unlikely person baptizable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baptizable>