

BARBATED

Meaning: Barbated refers to having or resembling bristles or tufts of hair, often used to describe features like a beard or hair-like structures on plants.

1. The barbated chin of the lion gave it an imposing appearance.
2. Botanists were fascinated by the barbated structures on the flower petals.
3. The rare bird was distinguished by its barbated throat feathers.
4. He admired the barbated beard of the old scholar during the lecture.
5. The artist's depiction of the barbated creature captured its majestic essence.
6. In the garden, the barbated plants thrived under the warm sun.
7. The taxidermist carefully preserved the barbated features of the specimen.
8. During the expedition, they discovered a species with uniquely barbated appendages.
9. The historical figure was often described as having a strikingly barbated visage.
10. Her fascination with nature led her to study the barbated insects of the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/barbated>