

BARBECUE

Meaning: Barbecue (noun): a social gathering or event where food, typically meat, is cooked outdoors over an open flame or grill.

1. We decided to have a barbecue in the backyard this weekend.
2. The aroma of grilling meat filled the air at the neighborhood barbecue.
3. She marinated the chicken overnight for the barbecue party.
4. Every summer, they host a barbecue that brings together family and friends.
5. He perfected his secret barbecue sauce recipe over the years.
6. They set up the barbecue grill near the picnic table for easy access.
7. The barbecue was a huge success, with everyone raving about the food.
8. After the rain stopped, they resumed their barbecue under the clear sky.
9. He bought a new barbecue grill that can cook for a large crowd.
10. The community center organized a barbecue to raise funds for local charities.
11. We decided to have a barbecue in the park this weekend.
12. The aroma of the barbecue filled the air as the meat sizzled on the grill.
13. She marinated the chicken all night for the perfect barbecue flavor.
14. His backyard barbecue was the highlight of the summer for all our friends.
15. At the barbecue, everyone gathered around to share stories and laughter.
16. They served a variety of sides at the barbecue, including coleslaw and baked beans.
17. After the barbecue, we enjoyed watching the sunset over the horizon.
18. He is known for his secret sauce that makes his barbecue truly unforgettable.
19. The children played games while the adults tended to the barbecue.
20. We invited the neighbors to join us for a festive barbecue celebration.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/barbecue>