

BARITONE

Meaning: Baritone: a male singing voice with a range between tenor and bass, characterized by a rich, deep quality.

1. The baritone voice is often considered one of the most versatile in the opera world.
2. He was cast as the lead in the musical due to his rich baritone tones.
3. A skilled baritone can effortlessly transition between powerful and soft vocal passages.
4. During the concert, the baritone captivated the audience with his deep, resonant voice.
5. She chose a baritone aria for her performance, showcasing her vocal range.
6. The choir was complemented by a talented baritone who added depth to the harmonies.
7. Many famous composers have written roles specifically for the baritone voice.
8. He was praised for his baritone rendition of the classic love song.
9. The baritone saxophone produces a deep, mellow sound that enriches the jazz ensemble.
10. In vocal competitions, baritones often face stiff competition from tenors and basses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baritone>