

BARK

Meaning: Bark (noun): the sharp, loud sound made by a dog; (noun) the protective outer covering of a tree.

1. The dog began to bark loudly at the passing car.
2. She noticed the bark of the tree was rough and textured.
3. His harsh bark startled the birds from the nearby branches.
4. The children loved to play in the park under the large oak with peeling bark.
5. As the storm approached, the dog barked anxiously at the door.
6. I could hear the distant bark of a dog echoing through the neighborhood.
7. The old log was covered in thick, dark bark that hinted at its age.
8. With a sharp bark, the dog signaled that someone had arrived at the gate.
9. She collected pieces of bark to use in her art project.
10. The sudden bark from the hound alerted everyone to the intruder.
11. The dog began to bark loudly at the passing mailman.
12. His bark was deep and resonant, echoing through the park.
13. The tree's bark was rough to the touch, with intricate patterns.
14. She couldn't help but laugh when her puppy tried to bark at his own reflection.
15. As the storm approached, the dog barked nervously, sensing the change in the air.
16. The artist used tree bark to create unique, textured paper for her projects.
17. With each bark, the dog alerted us to the presence of strangers nearby.
18. He peeled off a strip of bark to reveal the fresh wood underneath.
19. The sound of distant barking filled the night, creating an eerie atmosphere.
20. During our hike, I marveled at the various species of trees and their diverse bark textures.
21. The dog began to bark loudly at the strangers approaching the house.
22. As the wind whipped through the trees, the sound of bark cracking under pressure could be heard.

23. She decided to use the old tree's bark to create a natural art piece for the gallery.

24. His bark was worse than his bite, and everyone in the neighborhood knew it.

25. The thick, rough bark of the oak tree provided an excellent climbing surface for the children.

26. During the hike, they noticed the distinctive patterns of bark on the various types of trees.

27. The sound of a distant bark echoed through the quiet forest, startling the hikers.

28. In the autumn, the bark of some trees begins to peel away, revealing a smoother layer beneath.

29. The little boy laughed as his friend pretended to be a dog, barking playfully.

30. Bark from the cinnamon tree is a key ingredient in many delicious recipes around the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bark>