

BARKER

Meaning: Barker: a person who stands at the entrance of a fair or carnival and loudly promotes attractions to entice visitors.

1. The barker at the fair was shouting enthusiastically to attract visitors.
2. As we walked past the carnival, we could hear the barker's voice ringing out over the crowd.
3. The dog was a fierce barker, warning us whenever someone approached the house.
4. During the event, the barker expertly engaged the audience, pulling them into the show.
5. He worked as a barker for years before deciding to pursue a career in acting.
6. The barker's energetic personality made the booth irresistible to passerby.
7. In the distance, the barker's calls mixed with the laughter and music of the festival.
8. With a loud bark, the dog alerted its owner to the approaching stranger.
9. The barker skillfully drew in the curious with tales of excitement and adventure.
10. While some dogs are quiet, this breed is known for being an enthusiastic barker.
11. The barker called out to the crowd, trying to attract attention to the carnival games.
12. As the sun set, the barker's voice echoed through the fairgrounds, enticing visitors with promises of prizes.
13. She worked as a barker for the local circus, skillfully drawing in passersby with her enthusiastic shouts.
14. The barker waved his arms dramatically, gesturing towards the colorful attractions that awaited the audience.
15. With a booming voice, the barker announced the start of the talent show, igniting excitement among the spectators.
16. At the summer fair, the barker's lively personality made him a favorite among children and adults alike.
17. Each evening, the barker would tell stories of the performers, captivating the audience before the show began.

18. The barker wore a bright striped jacket that matched the festive atmosphere of the amusement park.
19. Crowds gathered around the barker, eager to hear about the daring acts and extraordinary feats planned for the night.
20. Though often underestimated, the barker played a crucial role in ensuring the success of the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/barker>