

BARKLESS

Meaning: BARKLESS: adjective describing a dog or breed that does not bark or makes little to no vocal noise.

1. The barkless dog wandered through the park, drawing curious glances from passersby.
2. In her quest for a quieter pet, she decided to adopt a barkless breed.
3. The barkless tree stood tall among its neighbors, showcasing its unique, smooth trunk.
4. Many people were surprised to learn that some dog breeds are naturally barkless.
5. His barkless nature made him the perfect companion for apartment living.
6. The barkless variety of the plant thrived in the garden, adding an exotic touch.
7. Training a barkless dog can be a relief for those living in close quarters.
8. She admired the barkless sculpture in the gallery, appreciating its intricate design.
9. The idea of a barkless canine appealed to families with young children.
10. Scientists are studying the genetics behind the barkless trait in certain dog breeds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/barkless>