

BAROMETRICALLY

Meaning: Barometrically refers to measurements or changes that are related to atmospheric pressure, particularly in the context of weather patterns or altitude determination.

1. The weather patterns can change dramatically barometrically as the seasons shift.
2. In aviation, altitude is often determined barometrically to ensure accurate readings.
3. The researchers studied how the fish reacted barometrically to changes in atmospheric pressure.
4. Barometrically, the region experienced a significant drop in pressure ahead of the storm.
5. Understanding how plants respond barometrically can help in agricultural planning.
6. The old barometer functioned barometrically, providing insights into impending weather changes.
7. She explained that the hike would become more challenging as we climbed barometrically higher.
8. Barometrically speaking, the forecast predicted a clear day following the recent rainfall.
9. Changes in mood can sometimes correlate barometrically with shifts in weather conditions.
10. The experiment aimed to analyze how sound travels barometrically through different mediums.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/barometrically>