

BASE-BURNER

Meaning: A base-burner is a type of stove, typically made of cast iron, designed for heating homes by burning solid fuel, particularly popular in the late 19th century.

1. The base-burner stove was a popular choice for heating homes in the late 19th century.
2. Restoring the antique base-burner required careful attention to its intricate cast iron design.
3. Many collectors admire the efficiency of a base-burner compared to modern heating options.
4. The base-burner was known for its ability to provide consistent warmth throughout long winter nights.
5. After years of use, the base-burner had developed a charming patina that added to its character.
6. She reminisced about her grandmother's cozy living room, warmed by a base-burner during snowy days.
7. Finding replacement parts for a vintage base-burner can be quite a challenge for enthusiasts.
8. The base-burner's unique chimney design effectively channeled smoke away from the living space.
9. He felt a sense of nostalgia every time the base-burner crackled to life in the chilly evenings.
10. Installing a base-burner in the cabin made it a comfortable retreat during the winter months.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/base-burner>