

BASELESS

Meaning: Baseless refers to something that lacks foundation or support, such as claims or opinions that are unfounded and without evidence.

1. The accusations against her were completely baseless and unfounded.
2. He dismissed the rumors as baseless opinions without any evidence.
3. Their fears about the new policy were based on baseless assumptions.
4. The attorney argued that the charges were baseless and should be dropped.
5. Despite numerous claims, the conspiracy theory remained baseless and unsupported.
6. Critics labeled the report as baseless and lacking credible sources.
7. Her baseless allegations caused unnecessary turmoil within the organization.
8. The team's confidence remained strong, unaffected by the baseless criticisms.
9. It is essential to challenge baseless claims with factual information.
10. The baseless nature of the complaints made it easy to refute them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/baseless>