

BASHFUL

Meaning: Bashful: shy or reluctant to engage in social situations, often due to self-consciousness.

1. She felt bashful when it was her turn to speak in front of the class.
2. Despite his talent, he remained bashful during the audition.
3. The bashful child hid behind her mother's leg when meeting new people.
4. His bashful demeanor made it difficult for him to make friends.
5. Even though she was bashful, she managed to join the group discussion.
6. He was too bashful to ask her out on a date.
7. The bashful artist rarely showcased his work, fearing criticism.
8. She smiled shyly, her bashful nature evident in her soft voice.
9. After a few compliments, his bashful attitude began to fade.
10. In a room full of confident speakers, her bashful presence was refreshing.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bashful>