

BASIFY

Meaning: To basify means to add a base to a solution in order to increase its pH and reduce acidity.

1. To basify the solution, we need to add a base compound that will neutralize the acidity.
2. The laboratory technician was careful to basify the solution to ensure accurate pH readings.
3. In agriculture, farmers often basify the soil to improve crop yield in acidic conditions.
4. The chemist explained how certain methods can efficiently basify water samples for testing.
5. To achieve the desired reaction, it's essential to basify the mixture before proceeding.
6. When mixing chemicals, one must be cautious not to basify too quickly, as it can cause a violent reaction.
7. Using lime is a common practice to basify gardens that have become too acidic over time.
8. The research showed that plants thrive better when the soil is basified appropriately.
9. It's important to properly basify the solution to avoid damaging sensitive equipment in the lab.
10. The team conducted an experiment to determine the best way to basify industrial wastewater.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/basify>