

BATELESS

Meaning: BATELESS (adjective): lacking bait or an enticing element to attract or engage.

1. The fisherman was disappointed to find that his baitless hook had attracted nothing.
2. In the midst of the competition, she realized her strategy was completely baitless.
3. His argument was compelling, but ultimately baitless without solid evidence.
4. Walking through the park, she felt a baitless sense of freedom and ease.
5. The documentary offered a baitless exploration of the subject, leaving viewers wanting more.
6. Despite its baitless premise, the book captivated readers with its rich character development.
7. He approached the conversation in a baitless manner, avoiding any confrontation.
8. The baitless trap failed to catch any unsuspecting animals.
9. Her baitless remarks left the audience searching for deeper meaning.
10. In the game, players often find themselves in baitless situations that test their ingenuity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bateless>