

BAWLER

Meaning: BAWLER: a person who cries loudly or frequently, or one who shouts or makes loud noises, especially in a context of distress or excitement.

1. The young boy was known as a bawler, often crying at the slightest disappointment.
2. During the game, the bawler's loud voice could be heard over the cheering crowd.
3. Her reputation as a bawler made her the center of attention at every family gathering.
4. Despite being a bawler, he had a talent for making everyone laugh with his antics.
5. The toddler's bawler nature was evident when he lost his favorite toy.
6. In the theater, the bawler in the front row disrupted the performance with loud sobs.
7. She tried to console her bawler friend, who was overwhelmed with emotions after the breakup.
8. The bawler's dramatic flair added an unexpected element to the school play.
9. Everyone in the room turned to look at the bawler who had just entered, tears streaming down his face.
10. As a bawler, he often found himself on the receiving end of gentle teasing from his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bawler>