

BEACHED

Meaning: Beached (verb): to be stranded or washed ashore, typically referring to marine animals or vessels.

1. The whale was beached on the shore, much to the dismay of environmentalists.
2. After the storm, several boats were found beached along the coastline.
3. The rescue team worked tirelessly to return the beached seal to the water.
4. Tourists gathered to take pictures of the beached jellyfish glistening in the sun.
5. The old ship had been beached for years, slowly decaying under the elements.
6. She felt a sense of loss as she watched her dreams beached like a stranded fish.
7. The documentary highlighted the plight of beached marine life around the world.
8. A beached dolphin lay helplessly on the sand, attracting concerned onlookers.
9. The sandy cove was a popular spot for beached boats during low tide.
10. Locals often organized clean-up events to protect beached wildlife from harm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beached>