

BEARBIND

Meaning: Bearbind: to bind or fasten together using a decorative or intricate material, often for artistic or ceremonial purposes.

1. The artist decided to bearbind the delicate fabric to create a unique piece of art.
2. In ancient cultures, it was common to bearbind important documents with intricate twine.
3. To ensure the manuscript's protection, she chose to bearbind the pages together meticulously.
4. He learned to bearbind the herbs for drying, preserving their flavor for later use.
5. The craftsmen demonstrated how to bearbind the wooden slats for a sturdy frame.
6. After the hike, they used a bearbind technique to secure the rolled-up map.
7. She found that to bearbind the materials effectively, a special adhesive was required.
8. The traditional method of bearbinding was passed down through generations in her family.
9. With a careful touch, he began to bearbind the stray branches into a decorative wreath.
10. The workshop focused on teaching participants how to bearbind various types of natural fibers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bearbind>