

BEARISH

Meaning: Bearish: characterized by a pessimistic outlook on the market or a specific asset, indicating an expectation that prices will decline.

1. The market sentiment has turned bearish after the disappointing earnings report.
2. Investors are feeling bearish about the stock's future prospects.
3. Her analysis indicated a bearish trend in the housing market.
4. Many traders adopted a bearish stance as economic indicators worsened.
5. With rising inflation, analysts are increasingly bearish on consumer spending.
6. The bearish forecast prompted several investors to sell their shares.
7. After several weeks of losses, a bearish outlook has become prevalent among analysts.
8. The stock's recent decline has left many in a bearish mood.
9. Bearish investors believe that the current downturn will continue for some time.
10. He wrote a bearish article warning readers to be cautious with their investments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bearish>