

BEBLEED

Meaning: BEBLEED (verb): to bleed again or afresh, especially after having previously stopped bleeding.

1. The wound began to bebleed after he accidentally bumped into the sharp edge of the table.
2. She watched in horror as the animal continued to bebleed from its injuries.
3. After the fall, he realized he would bebleed if he didn't apply pressure to the cut.
4. The doctor instructed her to keep the bandage on tightly to prevent the wound from beingbled.
5. In the heat of the moment, he didn't notice he was starting to bebleed from his hand.
6. The soldier's injuries were severe, causing him to bebleed profusely on the battlefield.
7. Despite the pain, he managed to bandage the cut before it could bebleed any further.
8. Her heart raced as she saw the broken glass, fearing it would make her bebleed.
9. He couldn't help but feel lightheaded as he continued to bebleed from the gash on his forehead.
10. The medic quickly rushed to help, knowing that any delay could mean he would bebleed out.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bebleed>