

BEBLOT

Meaning: BEBLOT (verb): To stain or mark something, especially fabric, with a spot or blot of liquid.

1. The artist's brush left a vivid blot of paint on the canvas.
2. She tried to be careful not to beblot her new dress with the spilled wine.
3. A sudden downpour caused the ink to beblot on the important document.
4. He examined the page for any signs of beblotting before submitting his essay.
5. The child accidentally beblotted the table with her markers during art time.
6. To avoid beblotting, she placed a protective sheet under the ink.
7. He noticed a beblot of ink on his fingers after finishing the letter.
8. The old photograph had a beblot where moisture had damaged the paper.
9. She carefully avoided any actions that might beblot her reputation.
10. The beblot on the shirt made it clear that she had been eating spaghetti.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beblot>