

BECALM

Meaning: BECALM: to make (a sea or situation) calm or still, often by reducing or eliminating wind or agitation.

1. The captain hoped the wind would becalm the turbulent sea.
2. After hours of sailing, the sudden stillness seemed to becalm the crew's nerves.
3. In the midst of the storm, a strange calm began to becalm the once-chaotic waters.
4. To his surprise, the meditation practice helped to becalm his racing thoughts.
5. The soothing music seemed to becalm the restless child in her mother's arms.
6. As the sun set, the lake began to becalm, reflecting the vibrant colors of the sky.
7. The experienced sailor knew how to becalm his ship during a rough passage.
8. A gentle breeze began to becalm the area, offering a brief respite from the heat.
9. In times of crisis, she found ways to becalm her emotions and think clearly.
10. The herbal tea was said to becalm the mind and promote restful sleep.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/becalm>