

BECLAP

*Meaning: Beclap (verb): To applaud or clap in enthusiasm or approval, typically in response to a performance or presentation.*

1. The crowd began to beclap as the band took the stage.
2. After the impressive performance, the audience couldn't help but beclap in appreciation.
3. She felt the urge to beclap when she saw her friend win the award.
4. In a moment of excitement, he decided to beclap loudly, joining the joyous celebration.
5. The children would beclap whenever their favorite show came on.
6. As the final notes echoed, the fans rose to beclap in unison.
7. To beclap is to express joy and enthusiasm in a lively manner.
8. During the speech, the attendees began to beclap in support of the speaker's message.
9. They were so moved by the film that they couldn't resist the urge to beclap at the end.
10. At the conclusion of the event, everyone stood to beclap for the remarkable effort put forth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beclap>