

BEDAGGLE

Meaning: Bedraggled: in a state of dishevelment or untidiness, especially due to being soiled or drenched.

1. The sudden downpour left the hikers completely bedraggled.
2. After the storm, the once pristine garden was left bedraggled and forlorn.
3. He arrived at the party bedraggled from the long journey through the rain.
4. The bedraggled cat sought shelter under the porch, shivering in the cold.
5. Her dress was bedraggled after she tripped and fell into the puddle.
6. The children came home bedraggled but filled with laughter from their adventure.
7. A bedraggled figure appeared at the door, seeking help from the storm.
8. Despite looking bedraggled, she managed to smile and greet her friends.
9. The bedraggled flag flapped weakly in the wind, a sign of the recent storm.
10. After a long day of work, he felt utterly bedraggled but satisfied.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedaggle>