

BEDASH

Meaning: Bedashed (verb): to be splashed or drenched with water, especially from rain.

1. He was completely bedashed after the unexpected downpour.
2. The children ran outside, bedashed and laughing, as the rain soaked them.
3. She stood at the door, bedashed by the sudden gust of wind that blew her umbrella inside out.
4. After losing the game, he was bedashed and sat quietly on the bench.
5. The bedashed audience watched in silence as the performer stumbled on stage.
6. With her hair bedashed by the rain, she hurried to find shelter.
7. He felt utterly bedashed when he realized he had forgotten his lines.
8. The streets were bedashed with puddles from the night's heavy rainfall.
9. She emerged from the water, bedashed but exhilarated after the swim.
10. Feeling bedashed by the criticism, he sought solace in solitude.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedash>