

BEDBUG

Meaning: A bedbug is a small, reddish-brown parasitic insect that feeds on the blood of humans and animals, often causing bites that can lead to discomfort and anxiety.

1. The bedbug infestation in the apartment made it impossible for the family to sleep peacefully.
2. After traveling, she discovered a bedbug bite on her arm that left her feeling anxious.
3. He spent the weekend cleaning and inspecting his home for any signs of bedbugs.
4. The hotel offered to refund their stay after they found bedbugs in their room.
5. Bedbugs can survive for months without feeding, making them particularly difficult to eradicate.
6. Many people are unaware that bedbugs can be brought home through luggage or second-hand furniture.
7. She researched various methods to eliminate bedbugs from her mattress and bedding.
8. The rise of bedbug populations in urban areas has become a growing concern for public health.
9. He used a magnifying glass to confirm that the tiny insects crawling in his bed were indeed bedbugs.
10. Despite their name, bedbugs can be found in various places beyond just beds, including couches and clothes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedbug>