

BEDCORD

Meaning: Bedcord: a cord or strap used to secure a mattress to a bed frame, often for safety and stability.

1. The bedcord was frayed, making it a safety hazard for the children.
2. She tied the bedcord to the bed frame to secure the mattress in place.
3. During the move, we discovered an old bedcord tucked under the mattress.
4. The technician recommended replacing the bedcord for better support.
5. He used a colorful bedcord to add a pop of style to his bedroom.
6. The bedcord snapped unexpectedly, causing the bed to collapse.
7. She checked the bedcord for any signs of wear before going to sleep.
8. A sturdy bedcord is essential for keeping the bedding tidy and in order.
9. They customized the bedcord to match the new decor in the guest room.
10. After the repair, the bedcord functioned perfectly, ensuring a good night's sleep.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedcord>