

BEDEVIL

Meaning: Bedeviled: to cause persistent trouble or distress to someone or something.

1. The relentless questions from the media began to bedevil the politician during the press conference.
2. Her dreams seemed to be bedeviled by shadows of doubt and insecurity.
3. The constant interruptions from her colleagues began to bedevil her attempts to focus.
4. A series of mishaps continued to bedevil the construction project, causing delays.
5. He felt bedeviled by the choice between pursuing his passion or a stable career.
6. Ghost stories seemed to bedevil the old mansion, keeping it shrouded in mystery.
7. The complex puzzle was designed to bedevil even the most skilled players.
8. She was bedeviled by a nagging feeling that she was forgetting something important.
9. Financial troubles began to bedevil the company, leading to layoffs and restructuring.
10. His attempts to solve the equation were bedeviled by numerous errors along the way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedevil>