

BEDFELLOW

Meaning: Bedfellow: a person or thing that is associated or allied with another, often in an unexpected or unconventional manner.

1. The old book was a bedfellow to her many sleepless nights.
2. In politics, unlikely bedfellows often emerge from shared interests.
3. The cat curled up next to her, becoming an unexpected bedfellow.
4. During the winter months, the thick blanket became her favorite bedfellow.
5. His love for jazz music found a bedfellow in her passion for classical.
6. They were bedfellows in their quest for social justice, despite their differences.
7. The memoir served as a bedfellow to his ongoing journey of self-discovery.
8. In times of crisis, fear can be a bedfellow to hope and resilience.
9. The artist's creativity thrived when it had the bedfellow of solitude.
10. Shared experiences can create deep connections between even the most unlikely bedfellows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedfellow>