

BEDPAN

Meaning: A bedpan is a shallow, typically plastic container used by individuals who are unable to use a toilet, allowing them to urinate or defecate while confined to bed.

1. The nurse brought a bedpan to the patient who was unable to get out of bed.
2. After surgery, he needed assistance with using the bedpan for the first few days.
3. She placed the bedpan beside the bed, ready for when her mother needed it.
4. In a hospital setting, bedpans are essential for patients with limited mobility.
5. The elderly man felt embarrassed to ask for a bedpan, but it was necessary.
6. They kept the bedpan clean and sanitized to ensure the patient's comfort and hygiene.
7. During her stay, she was grateful for the nurses who helped her with the bedpan.
8. The doctor explained how to use the bedpan properly for those who might not know.
9. He was relieved when the nurse quickly provided a bedpan after he signaled for help.
10. Using the bedpan was an uncomfortable experience, but it was a part of her recovery process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedpan>